iQ CREDIT UNION EXECUTIVE NAMED CHAIR OF THE WASHINGTON CREDIT UNION FOUNDATION

VANCOUVER, Wash — Linda Barber, senior vice-president of Member Services and Human Resources, iQ Credit Union, has been named chair of the Washington Credit Union Foundation, the philanthropic arm of the Washington Credit Union League (WCUL). The WCUL serves as the official trade association for credit unions in Washington state.

Barber has over 30 years of experience in financial services, and has been active in the Foundation for six years. In addition to her work with the Foundation, Barber serves on the boards of Financial Women International and Vancouver-Clark County Parks Foundation. She has also served on the Evergreen School District's Marketing Advisory Committee. She received the WCUL's Mark of Excellence Award in 2007, an award given to a credit union professional for significant contributions to the credit union movement over a period of 25 years or more. Barber resides in Vancouver.

The Washington Credit Union Foundation's mission is to support and promote credit union development and credit unions' commitment to social responsibility. As the philanthropic arm of the Washington Credit Union League, the Foundation engages in activities designed to benefit credit unions and their communities, including financial literacy education projects, educational development awards, community outreach grants, small credit union development grants, support of Credit Unions for Kids and BizKid$ fundraising efforts and disaster relief grants.
